Chairman's Message

Hi and greetings to you all.

Here we go again with a new round of working tests and training, the field trial season having finished. I hope all of you have had a good year and seen steady improvement in your dogs (or yourselves). Now is the time to start looking ahead and planning our training days and working tests, filling our diaries with GWGC activities.

I reported the departure of a number of committee members last year and now we are losing Jo Rollinson (Secretary) and Sheona Clayton (Membership Secretary) as both have moved too far away to continue in their respective posts. These losses are hard felt, especially when they have both provided the Club with unrivalled support and enthusiasm and we wish them good luck for the future.

However, as usual, we continue to secure strong replacements and I am pleased to say we managed to gain support from the following people:

James Bailey (Field Trial Secretary) took over just before the start of the trialling season last year and has performed like a pro. All trials have been conducted to the high standards expected of GWGC and James has even made sure competitors, helpers and judges are supplied with sweets throughout the day.

Lauren Wright is already a committee member and has stepped in to take on the Secretary's role for the future (I'm not sure Jo told her how much management of the Chairman is required).

I am very pleased Judith Curtis stepped forward in January 2018, joined the committee, and agreed to take on the Membership Secretary's role from Sheona. It will be quite a challenge for Judith as this is THE busiest time of year when over 600 members re-apply or join the Club. Welcome and good luck.

We have this year welcomed Sarah Miles to the committee and could accept one more member to strengthen the team, so don't be shy, step forward.

Gerry Price has agreed to hold this year's fundraising dinner at The Inn at West End on the 25th February 2018 and I hope to be able to report a good result. Keep watching the website for more on this event and all other activities within GWGC.

Finally, I would like to thank Mary Adkins for managing the Club's communications. This includes our Yearbook; the Club website and Facebook account—with the invaluable support of webmaster Liz Stedall—and our MailChimp broadcast emails. It is highly important we keep up with the times and communicate with all our members effectively and efficiently.

Have a good year, Chris Geal (Chairman)

Club Team Events in 2017

Oxted and Edenbridge Show, 27th and 28th August 2017

Judith Curtis writes: It was a privilege to be invited along with Paula Graystone to represent Guildford Working Gundog Club at the Oxted and Edenbridge Retriever Challenge.

Paula was first to run for Guildford at around 9am and I ran at 3pm: she was the lucky one, as it was probably one of the hottest days of the year.

The tests, all Open standard, challenged the dogs. Each one had about six retrieves in a row, including a long mark over a jump, distractions, a blind in a small fenced area of trees, a water retrieve and then a walk-up.

It was very enjoyable and many thanks to the numerous helpers, to Chris Marshall for judging, and Team SEGS for organising and running the day.

In the awards, we were pipped at the post by one point: The Top Team was UGS Kent and East Sussex.

I was delighted, however, to be placed 3rd in the individual awards, which were: 1st Mike Fleming and Bonny, 2nd Gwen Butcher and Archie, 3rd Judith Curtis and Ice and 4th Sue Chapman and Bella.

Inter-Counties Team Event for the Kelly Memorial Shield

Saturday 22nd April 2017

The well attended event was held at Gilly Nickols' Isenhurst Estate. Reuben Corbett, Mike Jones and Di Stevens represented the Club. The test was challenging and the day friendly (as seen in photo left).

The winning team was Kennet Valley Gundog Training Society, comprising Mike and Jo Rollinson and Rob Smallman.

A Friendly, Challenging Day at the Inter-Club Event

Our team enjoyed competing at the Inter-Club, ending up with results in mid-table while Mell Brooks, our novice dog handler, took the individual award in her class.

The 2017 Southern Inter-Club Event on 2nd July 2017 was hosted by Arun and Downland Gundog Society at Windsor Great Park, by Gracious Invitation of Her Majesty the Queen and the Crown Commissioners.

OPEN Robert Smallman

NOVICE Mell Brooks

NOVICE DOG-NOVICE HANDLER: Alistair Sealy

Robert Smallman writes: A beautiful day rose to greet 18 teams gathered for the much anticipated Inter-Club Event. It is always an honour to represent any club.

Arun and Downland Gundog Society was the organiser after their team's success, winning in 2016. Congratulations to the committee for their tireless efforts.

Special mention should go to Peter Clayton, Windsor Great Park Head Gamekeeper, who has been instrumental in overseeing and supporting gundog events.

As ever, great events need good judges. The Inter-Club was fortunate to have John Stubbs, Helena Sully, Mary-Jane Opie, Kieran Smith, Colin Pelham and Roger Wade. Their judging was friendly and fair, especially for more nervous novice handlers.

The six tests were set fairly to the level of the dog running, providing throughout a mixture of seen, blind and water retrieves plus hunting up to test our dogs' ability. Steadiness was always a feature—dogs were sent in front of others.

Our team didn't perform to its highest level—we were deservedly placed at about mid-table. Congratulations to all the winners, especially URC Southern which achieved 1st place and will now pick up the gauntlet to run next year's event.

Mention should be made of the individual winners, who ran so well on the day. The winning Open dog and handler went to Verona Clatworthy, the Novice to our own Mell Brooks and Novice dog-Novice handler to Kate Green. No doubt Kate will remember her win more than most. Well done everybody.

Competitive Training Day 2017

The Competitive Training Day is designed for novice handlers who wish to understand more about skills needed for competing in working tests.

Lisa Murrell writes: A typical British downpour could not dampen our spirits as 16 participants gathered for a soggy Competitive Training Day at Deerbridge on 22nd July. We set off smiling for classes meticulously planned by John Barnes and Colin Pelham.

We had mixed abilities. John took one group and dedicated his time first to a small amount of walked-up practice in a grass paddock and then concentrated on teaching the dogs to jump a low fence and retrieve the dummy gently to hand. Most of the dogs had never done this before and all succeeded by the end of the morning session, which was very satisfying. Meanwhile, Liz Barnes took aside those struggling with “the basics” of heelwork, delivery etc which enhanced the session and meant nobody was left with nothing to do.

I had prepared a lovely lunch for the judges and we were all supposed to picnic together, however, this became soggy sandwiches in the back of John’s van, with us all sheltering in cars and under the tailgates as the rain got worse.

Colin then took his group for marking practice in the roots field, again a first for some of the dogs. We then finished with a trip to the river which by then was running quite strongly. The entire class managed the get over—dogs swimming across a strong current and retrieving a dummy expertly thrown by Reg Perkins who did a magnificent job. At one point I was hanging on to his backpack to steady him as the ground underfoot was so soggy. We’d had quite enough excitement by then and it was time to end the session on a high note.

Enormous thanks to John and Liz Barnes for their wonderful ground at Deerbridge and to John and Colin for their instruction giving us a splendid day, backed up by the amazing Reg. As always, Jane Best was a magnificent help.

Just before we drowned in the car park we awarded the Jean Baveystock Cup for Most Improved Trainee over the season to Alastair Sealy with his dog McVean Black Tern. They attended every training session, so it obviously paid off.

There will be no Competitive Training Day in 2018, instead we will run a Mock Driven Shoot Training Day (see page opposite).

Club News: Training Ideas for 2018

We intend to offer members some new training experiences this summer and we're hoping for enthusiastic support.

The idea is to provide two training days this year to help people hone their skills in the shooting field: one for potential competitors in field trials; the other for field trial judges and stewards. Plans are at an early stage so keep an eye on the Club website and Facebook page. Once arrangements are fixed, we'll also send out an email to members.

Mock Driven Shoot Training Day

The mock driven shoot training day will simulate driven shooting using dummies, hopefully also with live shot. Experienced trainers will demonstrate how a driven field trial is run, setting up field trial scenarios and providing tuition on how handlers should approach them.

Field Trial Judging and Stewarding Training Day

At least two A-panel judges will offer guidance on all aspects of judging a field trial.

Experienced mentors will also be available to offer guidance to those who wish to understand more about, and gain experience of, stewarding at a field trial (previous experience not required).

The day will be run as a mock field trial (on dummies) in both driven and walked up formats. Further information will be emailed to members in due course.

Our Judges Qualify for the IGL Retriever Championship

Loyal members of Guildford Working Gundog Club qualified for the Championship in 2017.

Paul Dukes, Wendy Glue, Rodger Ketley, Jason Mayhew, Barry Taylor and Liz Taylor have served as judges at our working tests and field trials, while Jason, Barry and Liz also give their time as trainers at Club training.

Wendy Glue and Jason Mayhew made their dogs up to FTCh, a notable achievement.

Our own Field Trial Secretary, James Bailey, won a qualifying stake; the dog was handled at the Championship by its owner, Clare Baker.

Congratulations and our thanks for supporting the Club.

Training Organiser's Report

Lisa Murrell writes: I'm looking forward to the start of our 2018 training. Much to my relief, training figures were greatly improved in 2017, so thanks to everyone who responded to our call for more support at classes.

We welcomed some new members who joined the Club at training. Several have continued to attend and also help at our working tests and field trials, which is really encouraging—clearly they have caught the gundog bug.

We received very good feedback on our Saturday classes, which start at 10am, and on our get-together at the pub after class for those who are free—it has become a most welcome opportunity for yet more gundog discussion.

This year our training is predominantly at The Hampton Estate, with the last two sessions at Knaphill Manor, Chobham, in June. Our grateful thanks go to Bill Biddell and Will Godwin at Hampton and Sheila Slocock at Knaphill for their continuing support in 2018.

I'd like to thank all our landowners providing training grounds last year: Peter Harris and his daughter, Ginnie, at Sweetwater, and John and Liz Barnes at Deerbridge, who were wonderfully encouraging on our very soggy Competitive Training Day in July (see report on page 8).

John and Liz are, of course, two of our Club trainers along with Colin Pelham, Barry and Liz Taylor, Chris Rose, Joy Venturi-Rose and Jason Mayhew. They all give up their time to come and help members improve their gundog handling, working on any problems, so please do attend as many training sessions as you can this year to make it worth their while and to support your Club.

In 2018 we are raising the price of training to £7 a session. For sessions at Hampton, we will donate £2 of each members' fee to the Hampton Estate's nominated charity, at its request.

Once again, landowners have a very important message for us: it is ESSENTIAL that all dog waste is picked up, bagged and taken home.

The pictures on these two pages were taken at the first Club training of 2017

Field Trial Secretary's Report

James Bailey writes: My first season as Field Trial Secretary has come to an end. I am pleased to report that it has been a successful season with four excellent trials: an All Aged Stake at Cuffley in September 2017 by kind permission of David Thomas; an Open Stake at Windsor in October 2017 by kind invitation of Her Majesty the Queen and the Crown Commissioners; a Novice Stake at Minsted, also in October 2017, by kind permission of Jason Mayhew; and finally a Novice Stake at Wolverton Park in January 2018 at the kind invitation of Guy Pyke.

I should like to thank our generous hosts and their understanding keepers for providing some brilliant days for the trials. Thank you also to the guns who have very kindly - and patiently - shared their day's sport with the competitors. Field trials couldn't run without a great many helpers, and the Club is indebted to all of those who have turned out to help - invariably the same few people each time (several of whom are not committee members).

On a more personal note, I would like to thank Jo Rollinson, Julia Reardon-Smith and Lisa Murrell who have each been an invaluable source of support and encouragement throughout 2017 - without them being Field Trial Secretary would have been a lot more difficult.

Field Trial Reports: 2017-2018 Trialling Season

All-Age, Brook Farm, 14th September 2017

Gary Vidler writes: All I can say is it was a very strong field but the day was won and lost at the water.

Some long retrieves earlier had established a couple of favourites by way of eye wipes, but it was the final drive at the lake that separated the few remaining. A couple of birds had landed on the water, one stayed in the middle and the other made its way to the side.

After the drive we were told to move back down the bank to send for the one at the water's edge. The first dog hunted but did not find; the second dog hunted the bank, saw the bird in the lake and decided he'd have that instead. Then it was my turn.

I sent him along the bank, stopped him and pushed him into the edge. He then plopped into the water, turned and with one more push back, stuck his nose into the reeds to emerge with the bird after what seemed like an eternity.

After another cut, the three dogs remaining took another bird each from the wood to finish the day. In a close finish I achieved first place with Tom Newton in second and Liz Barnes third.

My thanks go to our host, David Thomas, for his generosity, the guns for their accuracy and the judges for their time and deliberation.

2-Day Open, Windsor Great Park, 16th & 17th October 2017

Leigh Jackson writes: It is an honour and a privilege to win, especially at Windsor where Peter Clayton and his team always put on such well run trials. The ground was varied and challenging: plough sunflowers and stubble turnip. Judges Mike Tallamy, Sara Gadd, Rodger Ketley and Nick Clitheroe made excellent use of the ground, stretching the dogs with retrieves of a good Open standard.

I picked my first retrieves after a mini drive where the birds had landed either on plough or into a sunflower crop mix. Both were from deeper back into the cover crop with the dog picking out of sight. Our second round retrieve was a mark in front, picked as we walked up in the sunflower cover which had rides cut into it. This was difficult ground and a number of dogs were lost as a result.

On the second day we walked up in stubble turnip. My third round retrieve was a memory mark in front of the line. The fourth round retrieve was another mark in front where the pheasant had moved a little: my dog quickly made the fall area and took a short line to pick (for this retrieve we were awarded the Norlands Trophy for Best Retrieve for my dog's work). On our last retrieve, we were sent second dog on a hen pheasant which had run. My dog made the fall and hunted before taking a line to pick. It was a great way to us to finish our trial.

Many thanks to James Bailey and his team for their hard work in putting on such a well organised trial.

Finally, sincere thanks to Her Majesty the Queen and the Crown Commissioners for their generosity in allowing us the use of Windsor Great Park to enjoy our sport.

Novice, Minsted, 31st October 2017

Lesley Crompton writes: A four-hour ordeal, swearing at the traffic on the M25 saw me arrive at Minsted Shoot frazzled. This was immediately lightened, however, by a surprise issued with the armband—a tube of fruit pastilles; nice touch James Bailey.

Thanks in no small way to the efforts of our Steward of the Beat, Jason Mayhew and his team of lads, the sugar beet yielded a steady flow of birds, giving our dogs ample opportunity to prove their worth.

Luck was on my side; my little dog was focused and on fire, breezing through the first two rounds in good form. My nerves settled once I had a couple of clean retrieves under my belt.

We adjourned for a quick lunch before moving on to round three with only five dogs remaining. I headed back out confident that my dog knew what to do. Somehow we held it together and successfully pulled off a long, angled blind to a partridge behind the line.

When will I learn to mark two falls in front while spinning to mark another behind? Thankfully my dog was paying attention, doing beautiful work which took us through to the fourth and final round with only four dogs remaining.

I knew I was in with a chance. My plucky girl managed an impressive eye wipe on a fast-moving runner that dropped in the boundary hedge and disappeared into the next field. She took a lovely straight line and with a desperate "back" from me, she spun around, plunged through the hedge and vanished. She hunted out of sight, emerging moments later clutching the bird. Job done, happy days. A nice piece of dog work and a great way to end the trial.

I knew my dog had run a good trial but how exhilarating to discover that the judges, and the guns, agreed with me. Truly a special moment, my first novice win with my very first gundog. Thank you Guildford for a magical day

Novice, Wolverton Park Shoot, 6th January 2018

Paul Newton travelled far and was rewarded by an epic retrieve, he writes: When I received the call from James Bailey late on Friday afternoon, offering me a run, it was an easy decision to make. My son, Thomas, had run in Guildford's all-aged stake at Brook Farm with his bitch, Phoebe, and waxed lyrical about how well organised and welcoming the Club had been.

I decided I would make the trip from Lancashire to Hampshire the following morning and set off at 3am with supplies and my young dog, Dillon. After a coffee and bacon sandwich at the pub, it was on to the shoot and a briefing from the judges before we filed into the gun bus to the first drive.

After cracking shooting from the guns, the trial got underway in an open wood where my fellow competitors made some smart early retrieves. My first retrieve was not the sort of opener I had hoped for: a bird had been shot at the far side of a thick patch of dense brambles which meant sending Dillon straight out through the brambles to pick out of my sight. After a couple of push-backs Dillon ploughed through the cover. When I thought he had emerged from the other side I could do little else but give him the hunt whistle and hope for the best. After what seemed like an eternity Graham, one of the judges, called bird picked and Dillon pushed his way back through to me delivering a very lively hen pheasant bright eyed with its head up.

That was to be the highlight of our day. We completed our first round, however, the second round was our undoing, with Dillon returning to the inexperienced young dog he is at just 19 months. The trial was completed with a second drive and then it was back to the shoot barn for the awards when I was surprised and thrilled to be given a judges' award for best retrieve of the trial.

Overall the trial was a fantastic day organised superbly by James and his team and expertly overseen by all four judges. Wolverton is excellent ground and I am sure I would be joined by my fellow competitors in thanking the landowners, the shooting syndicate and everyone who helped on the day.

Working Test Secretary's Report

Jo Rollinson writes: My final year as working test secretary for Guildford saw four very good working test days: the Novice in March, the Novice Dog-Novice Handler and Veteran in April, the Special Puppy and Intermediate in May and the Open in July. We had good entries and welcome all competitors; we hope they enjoyed their days.

The FTMS online booking system has been a huge asset to working tests and has dramatically cut down administration. Many thanks to Tim Hankey for all his FTMS IT support.

As always, we cannot offer these competitions without the generosity of landowners. Our grateful thanks go to Sir Graham Wilkinson, the late Mr Martin Slocock, Mr Neville Cherriman, and Her Majesty the Queen, the Crown Commissioners and Peter Clayton.

My role as working test secretary for Guildford Working Gundog Club has been really enjoyable over the years, owing to the efforts of the committee. I would like to thank them for their continuous support at tests, with special thanks to Lisa Murrell for putting on a great spread of food, and to Colin Pelham for setting every test—I have learnt a great deal from him.

Congratulations to all our winners, and a big thankyou to our helpers and judges for giving up their time.

Sue Jordan has taken over planning and running our tests and has organised all the Club's dates and venues for 2018 (see pages 20 & 21). Please support Sue by giving up a day to help at a test—you do learn a great deal from watching.

The Editor adds: Jo has served the Club as Secretary since 2012 and additionally as Working Test Secretary since 2015, dedicating an enormous amount of time and effort to fulfilling her considerable responsibilities with great efficiency and charm.

We were sorry to see Jo leave the Guildford area for a new phase in her life in Suffolk with husband Mike (pictured).

We wish Jo great success in all her future gundog activities and always look forward to catching up with her at trials and tests.

2017 Working Test Reports

Novice Test, Upper Birtley, 12th March

Olu Jenzen says she and her first gundog are learning their sport together; it seems they're both star pupils: My first test of the year. I arrived happy to see familiar faces, looking to benchmark what needed work in training.

The weather was damp. We faced five varied tests that certainly made the most of the ground. Dogs were tested on a long mark and several blinds, and in the walk up, they had to hold an area in challenging terrain with little scent.

The winners and judges of the Novice Test would keep holding on to that dummy. It was a joy to see her head pop up—I probably let out a sigh of relief.

She worked with real determination throughout the day to get the job done, showing she had matured a lot since the previous year.

The day finished with a testing run-off between Helen and Joy. I was stunned when we were called forward to accept the first prize—and completely lost for words. I do want to thank everybody who made the day possible.

Also, I'd like to thank my fellow competitors for making the day so enjoyable, and those with whom I've trained—nothing is more inspiring than their knowledge and understanding of how our dogs work and their willingness to teach us.

Elsa is my first gundog and we're learning together. She is honest, hard-working and fast. I'm trying my best to keep up. Spending days out like this competing or training are just the best, so thank you again to the Club for hosting these events.

Novice Dog-Novice Handler & Veteran Tests, Knaphill Manor, 9th April

Novice Dog-Novice Handler twosome Kerry Wallis and Ralph ran in two tests in two days. Despite some doubts, it turned out to be a good decision. Kerry writes: A second test in the same weekend: at the least it would be good experience and a day out for us both.

In the fourth test, the handlers were tested on their ability to remain upright on a very muddy slope while their dog retrieved over water. It took a while for dogs to get back up on the steep bank; I held my breath for what felt like ages, hoping my little dog

Starting with a double retrieve across water, followed by a double blind in the woods Ralph seemed to be going well.

However, I was not looking forward to our third test, a two-dog, two-retrieve walk up. I was second to run. Having watched the previous dog retrieve, Ralph was more than ready and absolutely flew out when the dummy was thrown for him. Unfortunately, so did my fellow competitor's dog and a bit of a tussle ensued. That sorted, the walk up restarted but my nerves had returned. Ralph, however, held his concentration and completed the test. I was very glad to get the lead on.

The winners and judges for the Novice Dog-Novice Handler test

Our final test was a long mark down a track and then a blind to the right. I had to handle on the mark but he found the blind with little need of help.

I thought the tests fair but challenging. Ralph coped with them well and I was really pleased how he had run, however, some of my fellow competitors had been in the awards at the previous day's test so I knew the competition was strong.

We were awarded first place, only dropping two points—I was so pleased and proud of my dog. It was a brilliant, friendly, well organised day out for Ralph and I, and it turned out to be a great decision to run in back-to-back tests.

Judith Curtis appreciated the beautiful ground at Knaphill as she put her veteran dog through its paces: What a brilliant day we had in Knaphill with gorgeous weather on lovely wooded, natural ground, it was a truly pleasant way to spend a Sunday morning.

Peter Buckle judged test 1, a double blind with no shot. One dummy was placed behind a log down a track and another through a thick wood on a separate line.

Test 2, judged by Julia Smith, was a 2-dog walk up where we had two retrieves which involved crossing the line.

Mike Brown on test 3 presented us with a long mark down a ride of long grass in a lovely wood, followed by a blind on the edge of woodland. Test 4, judged by Robert Worrell, was a mark with a shot across a pond, then a blind with no shot at a different angle.

A big thank you to Jo Rollinson, committee members, helpers and judges.

Special Puppy & Intermediate Tests, Prestwick Farm, 14th May

Penny Heath writes:

There were four tests, the first was a mark over water and then a blind slightly to the right, tricky, owing to the wind but we did it. Next came a mark then a blind to a post. Much hunting for the mark but not a fault on the blind. The third test was a double mark and the last a walk up.

The award winners with their puppies and the judges

I was surprised to win both first place and highest placed puppy under 18 months. I was very pleased with Teal, who is my first Labrador (I have previously run flatcoats).

I would like to thank Jo for a beautifully organised day, and the helpers, landowners and judges.

Intermediate test: First prize for the day went to Sergio Pilati with Norlands Freebie after a run off.

A very worthy winner who had been knocking on the door and finally gained the success he deserved.

The tests stretched the dogs, allowing them to shine. Thanks are due to the judges who kept the lovely, sunny day flowing.

Open Working Test, Windsor Great Park, 9th July

Joanna Voke pays tribute to judges who bore the heat to mark her out as a winner with her dog, Finn: Here we were at the wonderful Windsor ground on one the hottest days of the year, we really do have to thank the judges and helpers for their fortitude.

We contestants were lucky to be in the shade for most tests; the dogs were able to linger in the water—possibly losing marks—but some of the judges had to tough it out in the sun.

The tests were challenging, causing problems even for experienced dogs. The first that I did was a mark and a blind in young Christmas trees, not too challenging if your dog marked but I had to handle Finn as he hadn't seen it.

The first of two water tests proved trickier for some. The blind was in thick reeds right next to the bank and, once in the reeds, your dog was out of sight so some ran round the pond on the way back.

The next test was the hottest (literally) of the day, a mark and a blind in full sun with no breeze and no shade, phew! I felt for Wendy Glue judging this one.

Another water test next, much needed for the dogs, a blind with a mark on the water as a distraction. When sent for the mark, Finn rushed into the water, hoping, I think, for a cooling swim but the pond was shallow so it was just a splash through.

Finally, a two-dog walk up in a large but super-dry field—I felt that if a match dropped it would be ablaze in seconds. Just one retrieve at quite a distance which, luckily, Finn marked well so ending on a high.

I was thrilled to win. A wonderful day, thank you to Guildford Working Gundog Club.

Proud award winners and their judges in the scorching hot walk-up field
